

"Wow, I'm so excited for my performance appraisal today!"
Said no one ever.

TEACHER PERFORMANCE APPRAISAL (TPA) FOR NEW TEACHERS

Tuesday, October 20, 2020

Presenter

*Glenda Manzi, Vice President
ETFO Thames Valley Teacher Local*

WHO WILL BE DOING MY TPA?

2019 – 2020 NTIP Teachers

- If the process was started last year, but not completed, then last year's Principal will complete the TPA process.

2020 – 2021 NTIP Teachers

- If you are working remotely, the remote Principal will complete the TPA process.
- If you are working in a building, face to face teaching, the Principal in your homeschool will complete the TPA process.

New Teachers are defined in the Education Act as all Teachers certified by the Ontario College of Teachers (OCT) who have been hired into full or part-time permanent positions to begin teaching for the first time in Ontario. New Teachers must complete the NTIP program and achieve two SATISFACTORY ratings on Teacher Performance Appraisals for New Teachers.

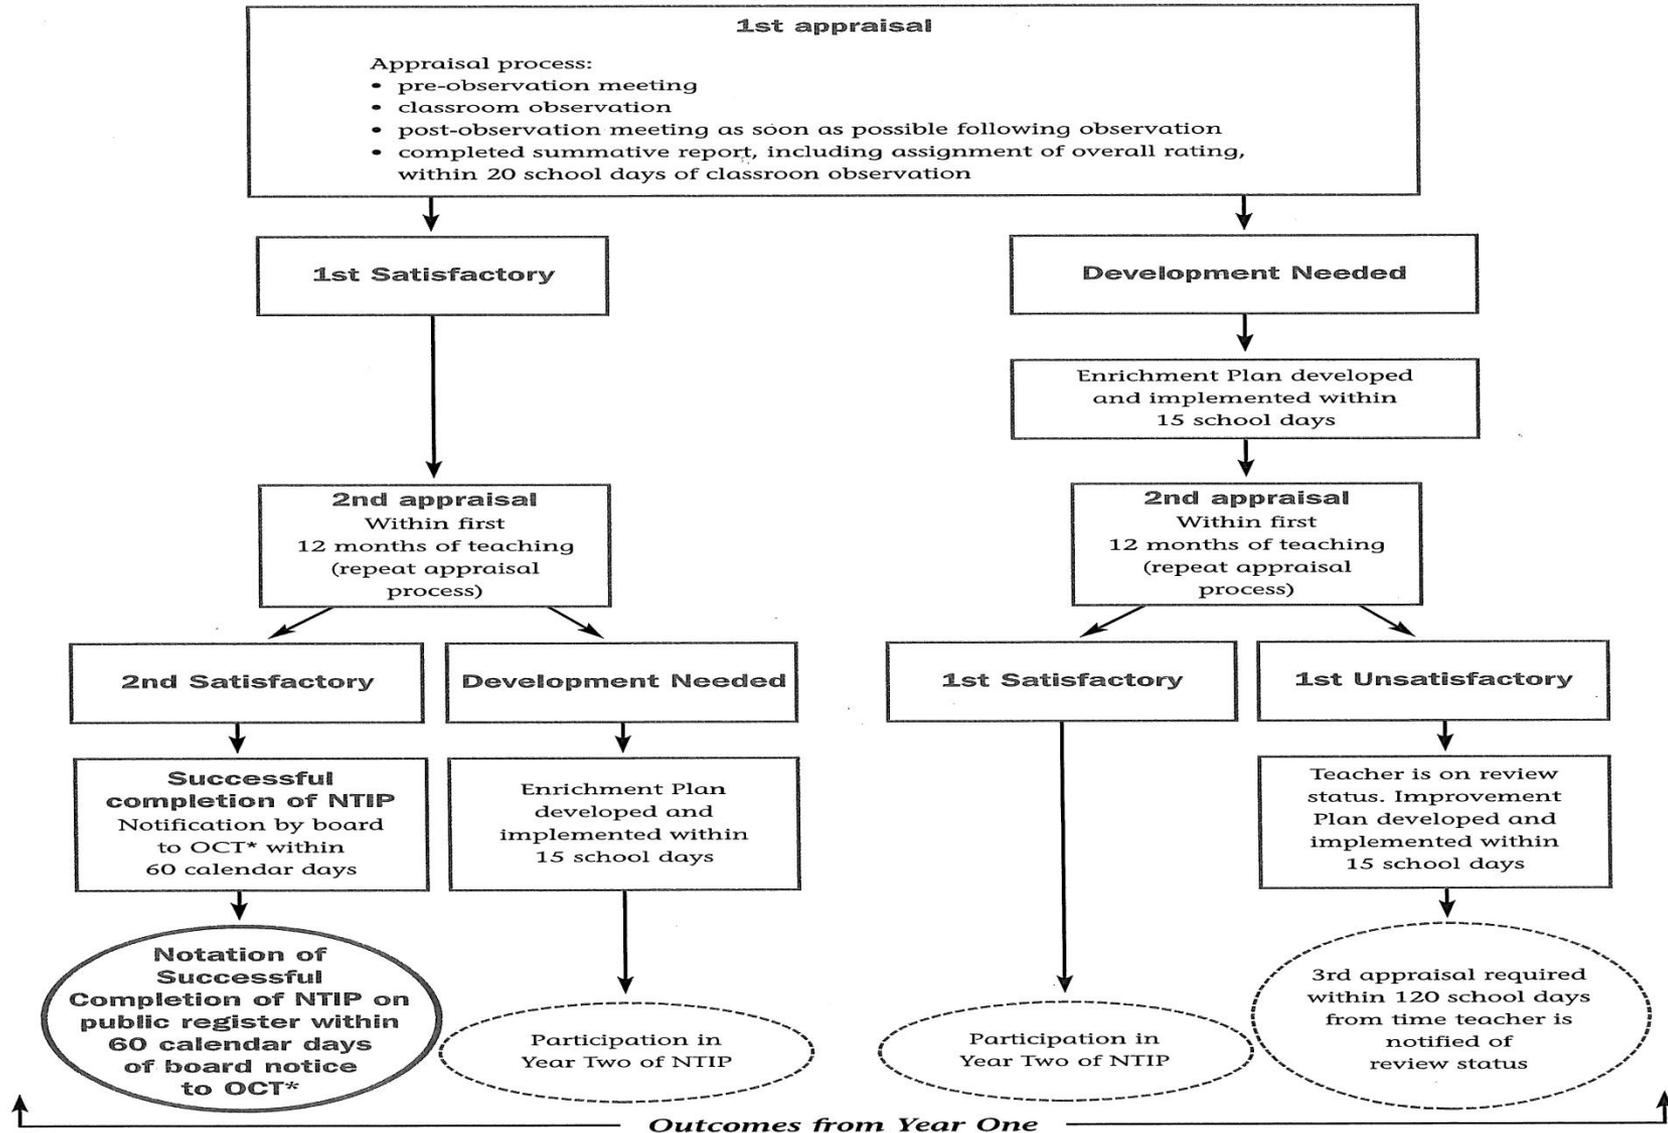

The purpose of a TPA is to foster Teacher development, provide meaningful appraisal and identify opportunities for support.

It is intended to be a professional dialogue and collaboration between the Teacher and the Principal in which both take an active role.

NEW TEACHER PERFORMANCE APPRAISAL PROCESS (OVERVIEW)

There is a Process

Ideally the process should take place within a 2 week period.

Pre-Observation Meeting (required)

Purpose of Pre-Observation Meeting

- Clarify the process and expectations
- Choose the best time and date for classroom observation. Some things to keep in mind when choosing a date.
 - Not on a Monday or a Friday
 - Morning is better than afternoon
 - Not the day before or after a holiday – like Thanksgiving, Halloween, Valentine’s Day, Easter
- Talk about the lesson(s) that will be observed
 - The plan
 - Expectations for student learning
- Talk about your strengths
- Talk about the make-up of your class
- Overview of the 8 competencies
- Talk about the competencies to be the focus of the classroom visit

Given the purpose of the pre-observation meeting what would you do to prepare?

- Become familiar with the competencies and Board documents
- Review the Collective Agreement sections (L5.05, L5.06) that deal with TPA
- Have the Principal come to your classroom for the meeting so student work, portfolios, and artifacts to demonstrate evidence of your strengths are available (assessments, resources)
- Be prepared to engage in professional dialogue about your teaching practice
- Have complete lesson plans connected to the curriculum
- Various assessment strategies
- Evidence of addressing competencies
- Complete long range plans

Classroom Observation

- There is to be one classroom observation in one continuous block of time on the date and time agreed upon.
- Your Principal or Vice Principal may observe.
- The “classroom” is the environment where you normally teach. This could include the gym, in another Teacher’s classroom (LST, ESL) or a small group setting.

What can you do to make the observation go smoothly?

- Check your Pre-Observation Meeting notes to review the focus competencies
- Be aware of transition and pacing
- Demonstrate behaviour management techniques
- Use instructional strategies that you know work – now is not the time to try a new instructional strategy
- Have your classroom prepared for the evaluation
- After the observation make some notes that you want to discuss in the Post-Observation Meeting

Post-Observation Meeting

This meeting should take place as soon after the observation as possible.

The Teacher and the Principal must meet to discuss the results of the observation and other information relevant to the Principal's appraisal of the Teacher's performance including the Teacher's participation in the New Teacher Induction Program.

The Teacher should leave the Post-Observation Meeting knowing your rating.

Satisfactory

- There will be discussion/feedback on strategies for growth with input from the Teacher to reflect outcomes of the appraisal. These growth strategies must be in the summative report.

Development Needed

- Growth strategies must be in the Enrichment Plan for New Teachers. This plan is developed by the Principal with input from the Teacher and includes supports through the NTIP.
- Ask questions so that you understand the feedback.

How could you prepare for the Post-Observation Meeting?

- Take some time to reflect on the lesson and be prepared to comment on the strengths/weaknesses of the lesson and the competencies that were the focus of the lesson.
- Have evidence of other competencies.

Summative Report

The evaluation report shall be given to the Teacher within fifteen days of the evaluation.

There should be no surprises for the Teacher in the Summative Report. It should be a reflection of the discussions throughout the process.

The Evaluator will:

- comment on New Teacher competency
- indication of participation in NTIP
- provide an overall rating of the Teacher's performance – either satisfactory or development needed

The Teacher will:

- sign the report to indicate receipt only
- if you do not agree with the report you have options for follow-up. Contact the ETFO Thames Valley Teacher Local office to discuss your concerns.
