

40th Celebration of Pride London Festival!

Some of the events include:

- Launch Event presented by TD
- Spotlight on LGBT2Q+ Artists
- Our Pride Place presented by London's Trans Community
- Drag Queen Storytimes
- Lunch & Learn Sessions
- Elegant Drag Ensemble
- Drag 101 with Miss Shaneen
- Virtual Community Celebration - Main event - Sunday, July 26th, 12 p.m. (in place of the annual parade)

Submit a positive message of love, unity, inclusion & Pride to the community to be included in the Virtual Community Celebration on Sunday, July 26th!

- For performances, videos can be up to 4 minutes. For Pride messages, videos can be up to a minute and a half.
- Videos should be submitted in the highest resolution possible and MUST be horizontal orientation.
- Pride London Festival reserves the right to use the submitted video, in whole or in part, online through platforms including, but not limited to, PrideLondon.ca, YouTube, Facebook, Instagram and Twitter.
- Pride London Festival reserves the right to edit and/or omit videos that do not uphold or violate the individual organizations values, mandates and missions.

To submit your video, visit <http://pridelondon.ca/getinvolved> & click on "Virtual Pride Community Celebration" and complete the submission form. Deadline for submissions is July 20th.

Throughout the festival you can support and share posts on Pride London Festival's social media platforms

- Like & share posts from Pride London Festival on Facebook, Instagram & Twitter
- Start watch parties on Facebook during Pride London Festival events
- Use #PrideLdn2020 & tag us in your posts
- Use our 2020 Pride London Festival Facebook Frame starting next week!
- Support our three Price social media campaigns:
 - #ChalkYourPride - Show off your chalk art!
 - #Paws4Pride - Show off how your pets support Pride!
 - #PrideAtHome - How are you celebrating Pride at home or at work? Show us!